FOR FOREIGN INVESTORS GAIN TIME

In the past decade purchasing property in Turkey became very popular through holiday homeowners and investors worldwide. At the present day the real estate market in Turkey is developing and becoming one of the prominent markets in the World. In Turkey which is among the countries which is available for investment in real estate industry, the boom in the real estate industry has instigated the investors abroad. There are many foreign homeowners in Turkey, some of whom live here all year round, while others just use their homes for holidays. All investors of them are thinking about making a right and reliable investment. The potential for Istanbul to rival the likes of Singapore, Paris, London and New York as an address to aspire to in coming years is enormous. Buyers are often attracted by the city's vibrant nightlife, culture, museum, attractions, and shopping, as well as the strong rental market. Accessing the city will become even more convenient once the third international airport is completed in late 2018. Now with the current exchange rate between the Turkish lira and dollar (0.16) that edges everything to buyers advantage. Turkish citizenship will be given directly to foreigners who buy at least 250.000 USD real estate in Turkey.
